Remembering that Jesus the Christ died on the cross for the forgiveness of our sins, and was raised on the third day giving us eternal life. We continue with confession and forgiveness.

 CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the wellspring of grace, our Easter and our joy.
C: Amen.

P: Held in God's mercy, let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for Reflection

Gracious Father,

C: As we gather in the presence of the Almighty, we confess our human frailty and our constant falling short of righteousness. We acknowledge our pride, our selfishness, and our failure to love one another as you have commanded. Forgive us, O Lord, and grant us the strength to walk in your ways, reflecting your grace and mercy to all. Amen.

P: God, who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. In the glorious light of Easter morning, we proclaim the victory of our risen Savior, Jesus Christ. Through His sacrifice, your sins are washed away. Receive the assurance of forgiveness, knowing that in Christ, we are made new. Go forth in joy, for you are forgiven and redeemed.

C: Amen.

 SHARING THE PEACE

P: The peace of Christ be with you always.

C: And also with you.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

Children's Sermon

WORD

The 1st lesson is a reading from Acts, the 4th chapter.

The next day [the] rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.' There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

The Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23 (Read Responsively)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want.

The Lord makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.

You restore my soul, O Lord, and guide me along right pathways for your name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil, and my cup is running over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The 2nd lesson is a reading from I John, the 3rd chapter.

We know love by this, that Jesus Christ laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

The Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

The musical notation consists of two staves of music in a single system. Both staves are in the treble clef and have a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written on the first staff, and the lyrics are placed below it. The second staff continues the melody. The lyrics are: "We are turn - ing, Lord, to hear you; you are mer - ci - ful and kind - slow to an - ger, rich in bless - ing, and with love to us in - clined."

The Holy Gospel according to John, the 10th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said:] “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

The Gospel of the Lord. C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon: The Shepherd gives all for you.

Hymn of the Day:

Borning Cry

732

1 "I was there to hear your born-ing cry, I'll be there when you are old.
2 "When you heard the won-der of the Word I was there to cheer you on;
3 "In the mid-dle a-ges of your life, not too old, no lon-ger young,
4 "I was there to hear your born-ing cry, I'll be there when you are old.

I re-joiced the day you were bap-tized to see your life un-fold.
you were raised to praise the liv-ing Lord, to whom you now be-long.
I'll be there to guide you through the night, com-plete what I've be-gun.
I re-joiced the day you were bap-tized to see your life un-fold."

I was there when you were but a child, with a faith to suit you well;
If you find some-one to share your time and you join your hearts as one,
When the eve-ning gent-ly clos-es in and you shut your wea-ry eyes, in a blaze of light you wan-dered off to find where de-mons dwell."

I'll be there to make your vers-es rhyme from dusk till ris-ing sun."
I'll be there as I have al-ways been, with just one more sur-prise."

Offertory Prayer: Risen One, you call us to believe and bear fruit. May the gifts that we offer here be signs of your abiding love. Form us to be your witnesses in the world, through Jesus Christ, our true vine.

C: Amen.

 The Prayers of Intercession: The congregation's response to "God of grace," is "hear our prayer."

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Hymn History – Hymn History – Our sending song today “The King of Love My Shepherd Is” is a beautiful rendition of the Twenty-third Psalm. Henry Williams Baker authored the text in the mid 1800’s although it has been sung to multiple tunes. Baker was born in 1821, a son of a Vice Admiral in the British Navy. He was ordained at the age of 24 after attending Trinity College. Henry labored greatly on a book of hymns reflecting the grandeur of majestic worship. His work Entitled “Hymns Ancient and Modern” was published in 1861. The book was known by its initials “H. A. and M.” Due to Henry’s reputation for laboriously pouring over and editing his works, some called it “Hymns Asked for and Mutilated.” It became the leading hymnbook in the Anglican church. His friend reported that Henry W. Baker’s last words were from our hymn:

“Perverse and foolish oft I started, | But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid, | And home, rejoicing, brought me”
